Good, thank you for letting me know.

FYI – I'm out on furlough tomorrow (mandatory day) and Monday's the holiday....so I will speak to you Tuesday. I am still planning to send comments on the final design before I go today.

Have a great weekend!

I checked average turbidity over June and July..

Top of water column:

19.3 NTU +/- 10.5

Bottom:

37.5 NTU +/- 38.6
